LIABILITY AND INSURANCE

Emilie Buttier specialises in insurance and civil liability insurance law and in health-care law.

Her clients are principally insurance companies, industrial companies, care providers and healthcare professionals, to whom she provides advice and assistance on corporate matters and representation in amicable and litigious dispute resolution. Emilie and her team stand out thanks notably to their highly-detailed file preparation prior to any court ordered evaluation proceedings and by being an active presence supporting their clients during the expertise phase, which is a vital part of a case. Emilie also organises topic-based training sessions for her clients.
