DISTRESSED COMPANIES AND COMMERCIAL LITIGATION

Laurent Jourdan has over 20 years' experience in advising distressed companies and in commercial litigation.

He advises companies and creditors in the framework of ad hoc mandates, conciliations, safeguard proceedings, restructurings and court-ordered liquidations.

Laurent is particularly active in LBO restructurings and the turnaround of distressed companies.

He has advised on most of the matters implementing the European Union regulation. Parmalat Eurofood, Cœur Défense, Rover, EMTEC, etc.

Laurent has also advised on the most important cases in recent years: Fagor Brandt, Gad, Guy Degrenne, Terreal, Télémarket, Vivarte, Caucal, FRAM, etc.

Finally, Laurent is widely recognised as an expert in high-stakes litigation in the areas of liability, post-acquisition disputes, disputes among shareholders and commercial agreements.
