

Joan Dubaere
Partner

—
jdubaere@racine.eu
T. +32 (0)2 412 01 97

—
Brussels Bar (1981)
Partner at Racine since 1987

COMPANY AND COMMERCIAL LAW - EMPLOYMENT LAW

Joan Dubaere is widely recognised for his corporate law and commercial law expertise, as well as his experience in corporate restructurings and related employment law matters.

Joan advises both Belgian companies and international groups. He provides advice and assistance in the context of the negotiation and drafting of agreements and also acts in commercial disputes.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Company law, Mergers & Acquisitions, restructuring and shareholder disputes
- Employment law, contracts, legal opinions and litigation
- Commercial contracts, negotiation, drafting and disputes

CAREER

Racine Brussels since 1981

EDUCATION

Law degree (Catholic University of Louvain)

LANGUAGES

Dutch, French, English

OTHER

- Substitute judge, Brussels Commercial Court
- Orateur d'entrée, Brussels Youth Bar (Vlaams Pleitgenootschap), 1988
- President, Brussels Youth Bar (Vlaams Pleitgenootschap), 1991-1992
- Member of the Dutch Order of Attorneys, Brussels (1992-1995)
- Member of the General Assembly of Dutch-Speaking Bar Associations ("OVb") 1999-2006
- Member of the Eurojuris International network of lawyers and member of the board of directors of the Eurojuris International Business Group
- Lecturer at the Brussels Bar School (Ecole de Stage du Barreau) (commercial law, bankruptcy)
- Previous appointments as court-appointed representative and company liquidator

PUBLICATIONS

- Het principe van het monetair nominalisme, Jura Falconis 1978-79, 57
- Een brug over troebel water, R.W. 1988-89, 1417
- Juridische facetten van de informatica binnen de arbeidsverhouding, Tendenzen in het Bedrijfsrecht, Bruylant-Kluwer, 1996
- Numerous seminars and publications in relation to company law, corporate liquidations, shareholder disputes (EHSAL and M&D SEMINARS)