CIVIL LIABILITY - INSURANCE LAW

Kathlien Vergels has been an attorney and member of the Brussels Bar since 1987. She is active in the areas of liability and insurance law.

She handles on behalf of insurance companies and other entities matters relating to the liability generated by their business activities.

She also advises private individuals, notably after they have suffered losses (medical treatment, delivery of non-compliant goods or services, assessment of bodily damage, medical assessments, family liability).

Kathlien regularly takes part in studies and seminars focusing on the aforementioned topics.
